Imagine you got to know the man above. Create a story of your first impression of him and how your first impression changed. Follow the time order of the pictures. Then answer the questions below.

1. Who is the person? __________________________________________________________
2. Where and when did you meet? _______________________________________________
3. Why did you meet? __________________________________________________________
4. What was your first impression? ______________________________________________
5. Why did you have this impression? ____________________________________________
6. When did you realise your first impression was wrong? ___________________________
7. What happened to change your mind? ___________________________________________
8. What do you think about the person now? ________________________________________